Academic Honesty:

The instructor reserves the right to adjust letter grades, upward only, based on individual attendance and class participation if numerical grade warrants such consideration. Students who violate University rules on scholastic dishonesty are subject to disciplinary penalties, including the possibility of failure in the course and dismissal from The University. Since dishonesty harms the individual, all students, and the integrity of The University, policies on scholastic dishonesty will be strictly enforced.

Exam & Assignment Policy:

There will be a quiz every week. The quiz will include the topics covered in previous lectures. There will be homework (Assignment) each week for the topic covered in the same week. It is expected that student will do their assignments within one week. No late assignments will be accepted. Exams will include material covered in class discussions and homework assignments. Exam make-ups will be given only in the event of a verified emergency or doctor-verified sickness. The student is responsible for all reading assignments and class handouts whether or not covered in class or listed on the syllabus.

The last day of class is the deadline for students to verify their grades and the accuracy of their score. After this deadline, there will be no consideration for any changes.

University Counseling and Psychological Services:

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) can help students who are having difficulties managing stress, adjusting to college, or feeling sad and hopeless. You can reach CAPS (UH main campus www.uh.edu/caps, or UH Sugar Land campus <http://www.uh.edu/dsaes/uhsugarland/>) by calling 713-743-5454 during and after business hours for routine appointments or if you or someone you know is in crisis. No appointment is necessary for the “Let's Talk” program, a drop-in consultation service at convenient locations and hours around campus.

Virtual Classroom Ethics:

High level of professionalism during virtual teaching is expected from students. A student does not have the right to make changes to the instructor's way of managing the classroom. Disruptive behaviors, such as carelessness, joining late to class, and using unauthorized electronic devices during class is not permitted. Repetitive and seriously disruptive behavior may result in removal from class in accordance with policies and procedures set by the Dean of Students Office.

It is expected that student will join the class using Microsoft Teams. Students shall open their cameras and mute their mics during the class unless otherwise permitted by the instructor.

Grading Policy and Scale:

Grading and passing rate will be determined during the course progress. Grades will be distributed among quizzes, assignments, attendance, and exams.

Students with Disabilities:

University of Houston provides, upon request, appropriate academic adjustments for qualified students with disabilities. Any student with a documented disability (physical or cognitive) who requires academic accommodations should contact the Center for Students with Disabilities (713/743-5400) for more assistance.
