Use the sign-in address for your organization or Microsoft account	- not a Skype Name

Sign-in to SFB Using a Computer in the CougarNet Domain When a person is logged into a computer on CougarNet, upon launch, SFB will use the CougarNet credentials of the person logged into that computer. The sign-in to SFB is automatic as long as you enter the sign-in address as CougarNetID@central.uh.edu.

Sign-in to SFB at Home Using a Computer Not in the CougarNet Domain

 In the Sign-in Address field, enter your CougarNetID@central.uh.edu.
 Click Sign-in.
 In the User Name field that appears, enter CougarNetID@cougarnet.uh.edu.
 In the Password field, enter your CougarNet password.
 Click Sign-in.

Sign-in to SFB As Another Person

To sign-in to SFB as someone other than the person logged into the computer:

Skype for Business - Windows

What to do When a Windows Security Password Request Appears

For one reason or another, a Windows Security dialog box sometimes appears requesting a password. SFB is unable to connect to your Exchange account to access recent call history or voice mail.

If one of the following dialog boxes appears (shown below):

- 1. Enter the user name as CougarNetID@cougarnet.uh.edu.
 - 2. Supply your password.
 - 3. Select Save My Password.

4. Click Ok.
